Foreword

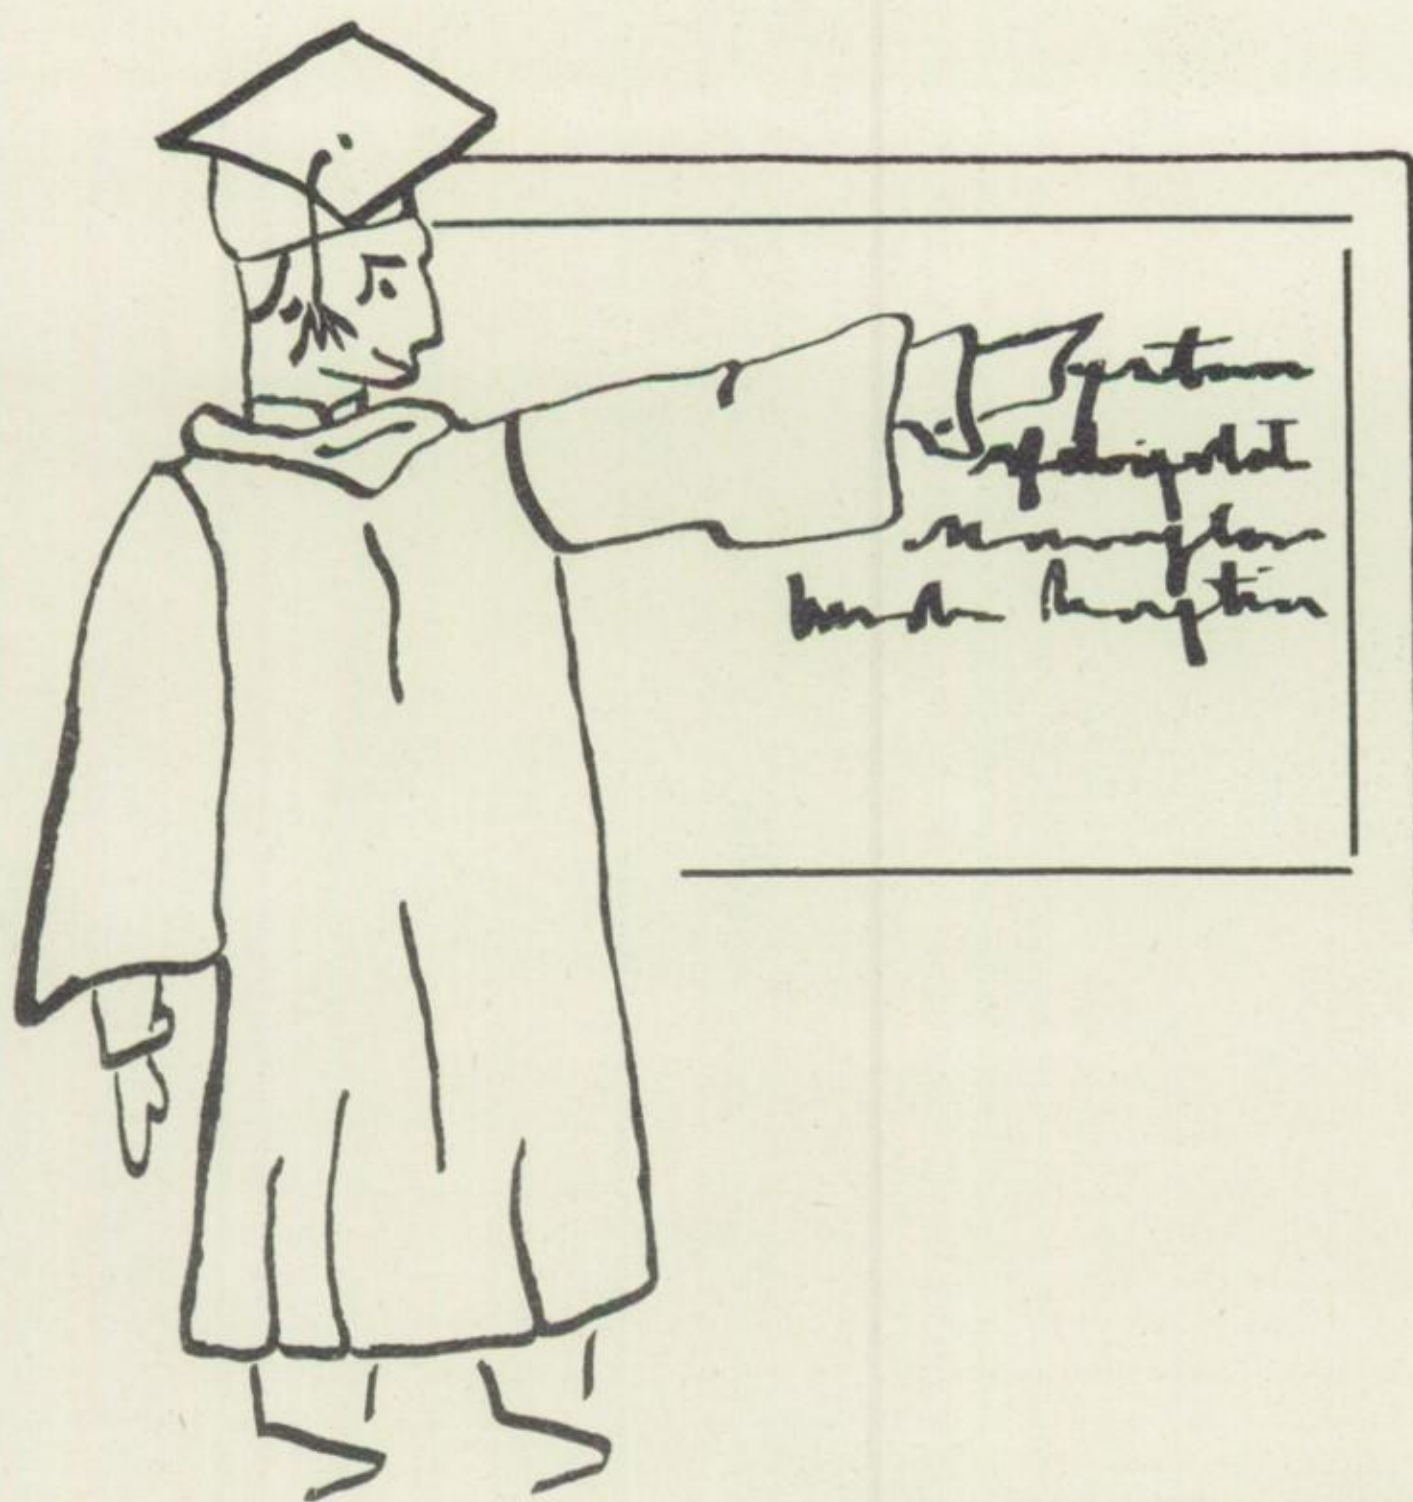

The Ray Staff of 1959 is proud to present to you this yearbook. It is the staff's aim in this publication to give you an over-all picture of our school activities, both regular and extracurricular. We hope it will bring you many happy memories.

In recognition of their fine leadership and friendly interest, we, the Class of 1959, affectionately dedicate THE RAY to our advisors, Mrs. Edith Cameron and Mrs. Helen Oram.

It is our hope that in this dedication we will be able to express our gratitude and sincere appreciation for all that they have done as teachers, advisors, and friends.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Principal's Message

What is the most important day of your life? (Decide before you read on.) At least two views of this question have been honestly seen by the philosophers. Some believe that ultimate courage requires that daily we live only "this day" and live it to our best. Viewing now as if it were all can make each hour, each minute all important and has made virtual saints of men who could accept the challenge. Others of our great thinkers see "today" as the rung of the ladder of life on which we are standing with our arms, our eyes, and our minds stretched toward the tomorrows. They weigh no one day more important than another; the height we scale by the ladder of life is the contribution. In either case, is any day more important than today?

TYPICAL SCHOOL DAY

The day begins—

Two notebooks, please.

Good morning, the announcements for today are . . .

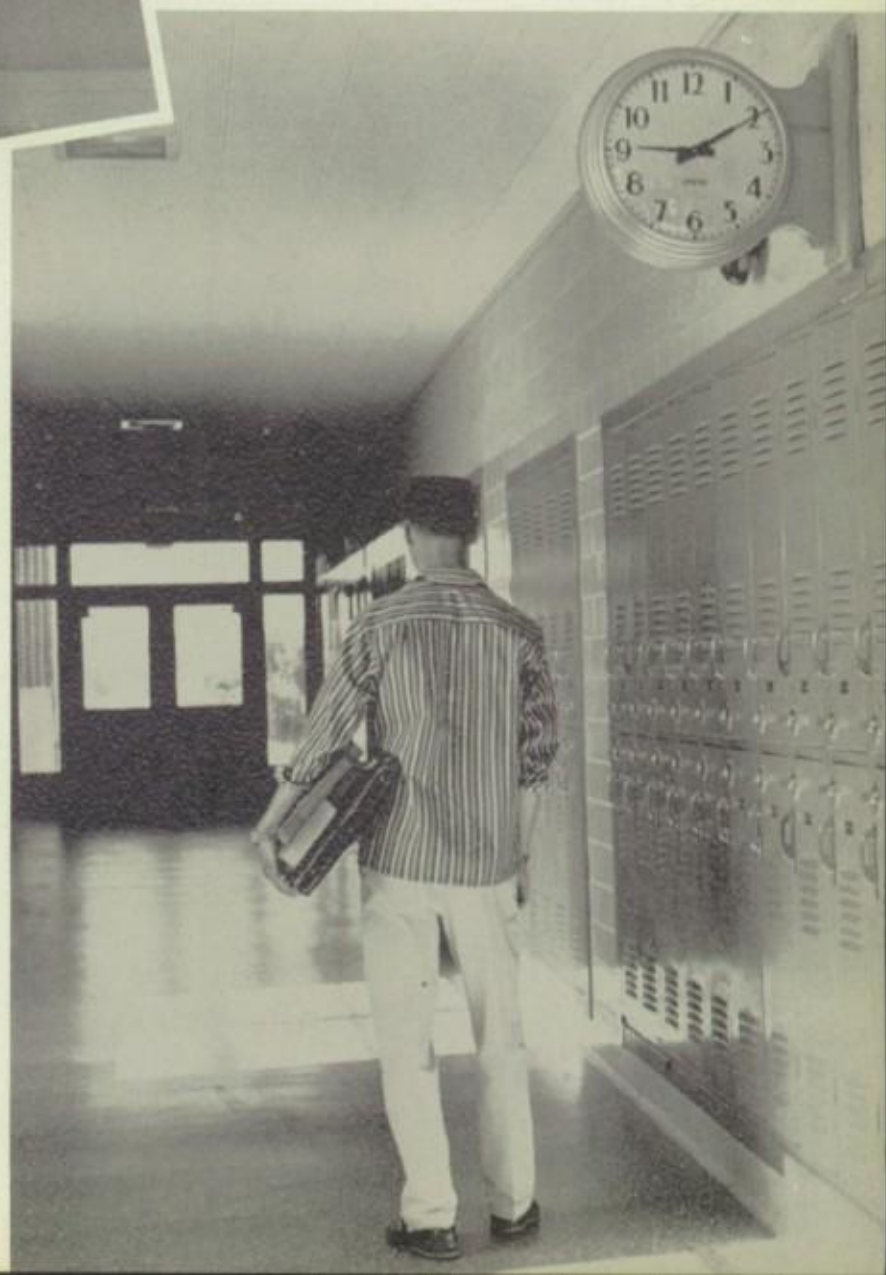

I pledge allegiance—

Who's interested?

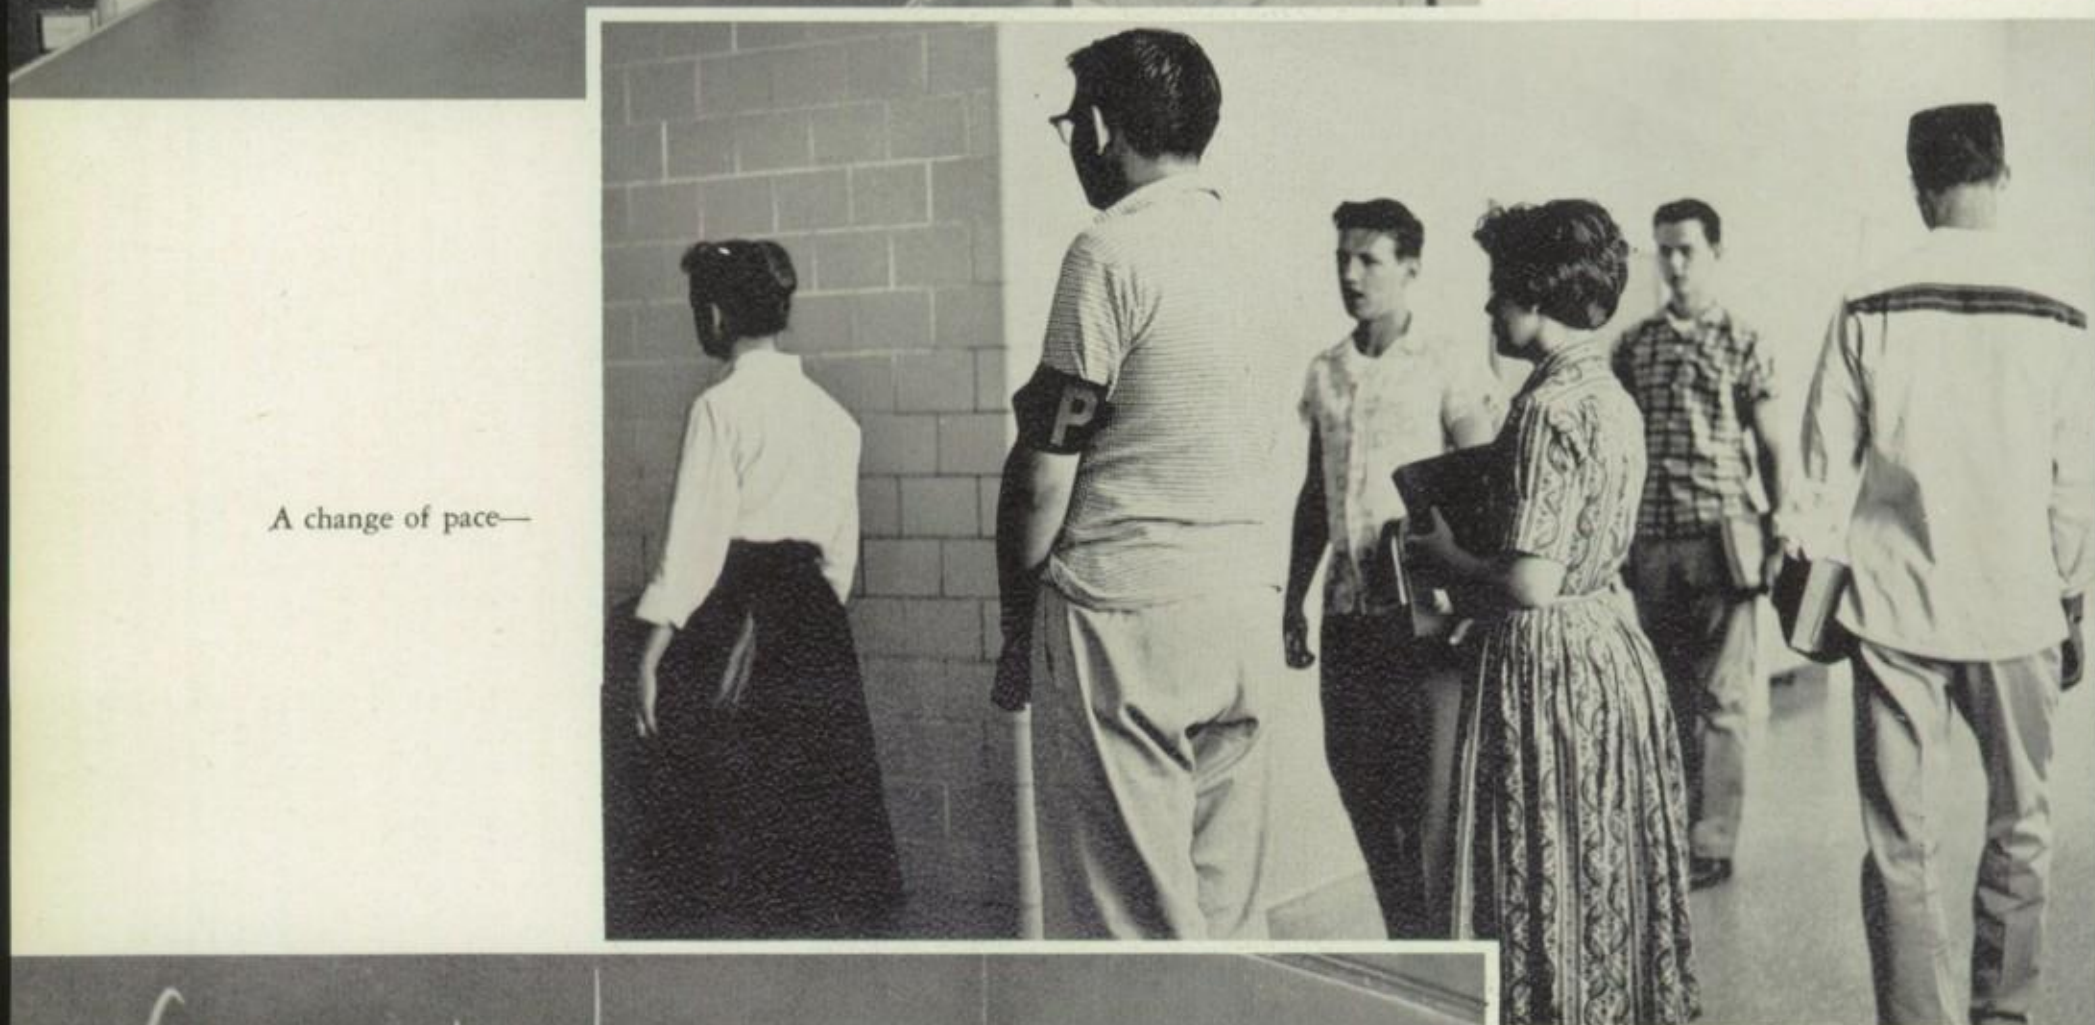

A "ten" o'clock scholar—

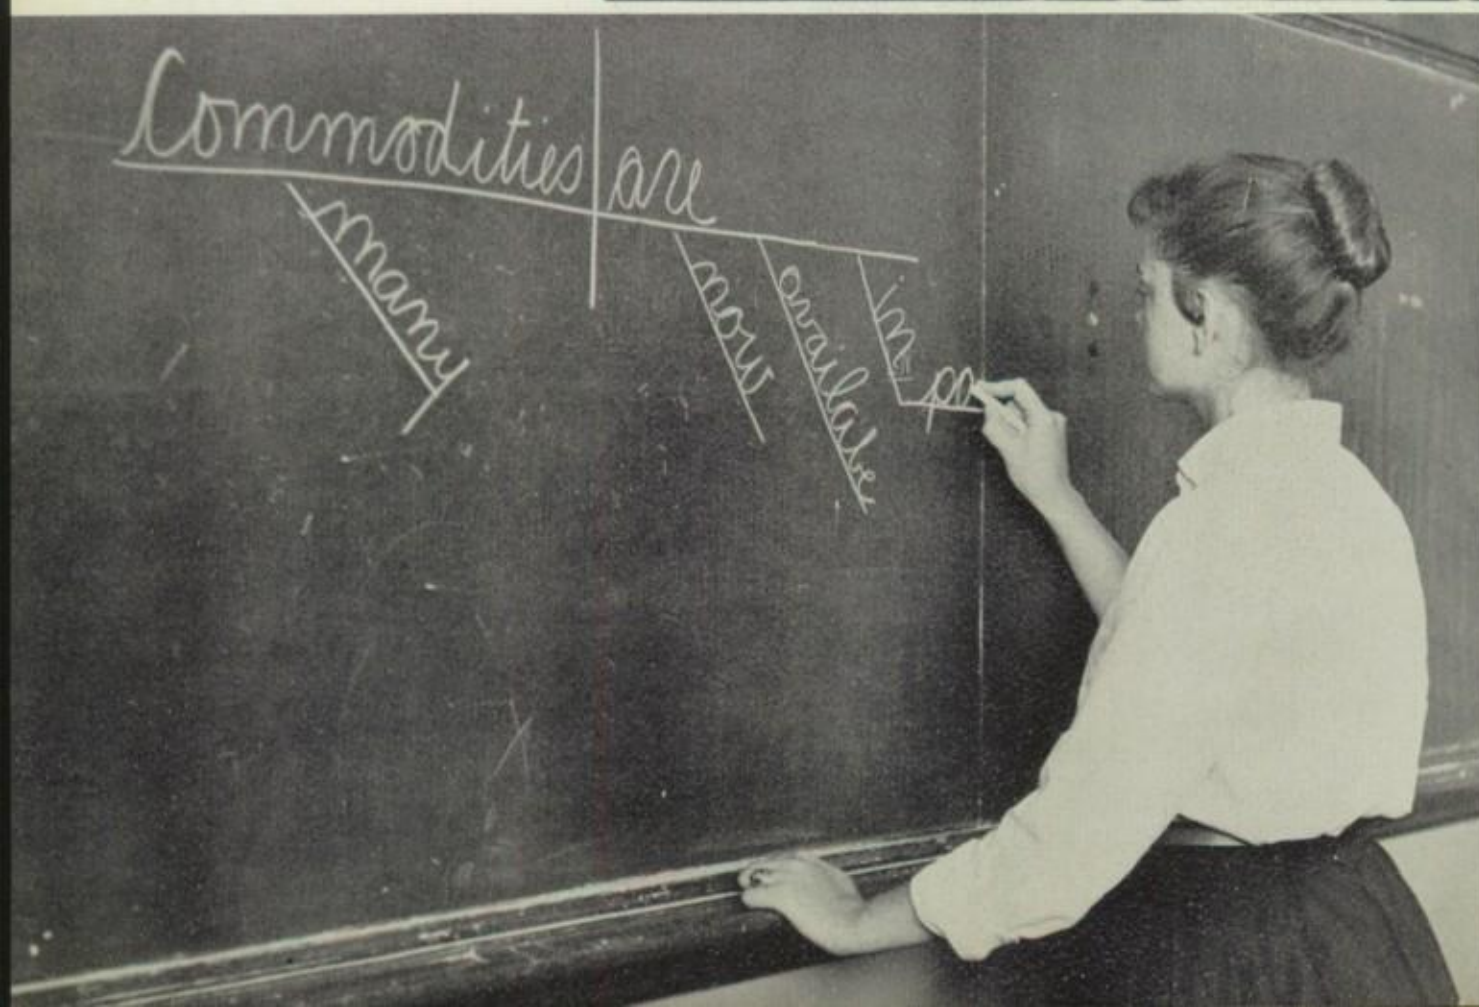

What is it this time?

A change of pace—

Oops, I'd better start over!

Chemists in the making?

Burnt again!

At last!

Keep your eyes on the book!

What's the hurry.

Watch your fingers!

The long day ends.
